[Woolerymisc.FTW]

Letter from Ruthie ? to her grandmother, Elizabeth Learned, in Augusta, KS, in 1973. Virgil & Robert Papen visited Mrs. Learned and she gave them copy of Ruthie's letter. Hard to read. Was photostat of yellow tablet paper. Now in Robert Papen's file. States that Lawrence Woolery was son of Stephen Woolery and Kate Swearingen. My records do not show Stephen C. Woolery as being married to a Kate Swearingen only to Catherine Sailen (Saling) and Polly Shurley. May be a different Stephen but anyway apparently Lawrence married his lst cousin, Martha Annie B. Woolery, daughter of John Brisco Woolery in 1877.

Info from Donya Hoeppner (July 2000) has another daughter, Francis Mary Woolery, listed, but does not have a Charles Woolery listed.

Notes for MARY JANE WOOLERY:
Copy of "In Memorian" from local newspaper after death of husband..

Mary Jane Woolery was born Feb. 19, 1848, in Cooper County, Mo; died April 15, 1906, at high noon, at her home in Camden County. She moved with her parents to Morgan county in childhood, where she resided until about 1869, when she moved to Phellps county, thence to Camden county where she lived until her death. Both of her parents died before her 13th birthday, and she being the oldest child, assumed the duty of mother and sister to the 5 younger childdren. She was married to Ed Robinson in 1861 and to this union was born two children, both dying in infancy. Her husband died Dec. 25, 1864. She was again married to John K Wallis in 1866. To this union was ten children born, all of whom survive her, and were with her in her last illness.
Besides her children she leaves an aged husband, three brothers and one sister, as follows: John C. Woolery of Morgan County, R.H. Woolery of Camden County, and B.F. Woolery of Miller Coounty, all being at her bedside in her last hours.
She joined the M.E. Church in 1867 at the old Self Chapel in Morgan County under the pastorate of Uncle Sammy Colborn, and lived a true Christian the remainder of her life. She was confined to her bed 3 1/2 months and everything was done that mortal hands could do to save her, but to no avail. The remains were laid to rest in the Freedom cemetary on the 16th. Her husband was laid to rest beside her last March after spending twenty long lonesome years without her. Contributed.

Woolery suffered a stroke of paralysis over a year ago and since that time had been unable to do but very little work on the farm. About two weeks ago he had a second stroke and despite all medical aid, succumbed to the malady on the above date. The deceased was a public spirited citizen, a good neighbor and devoted husband and father. Since early in life he has been a active Christian worker, his life being one worthy of emulation. He was a member of the Madden Methodist Church and for many years was superintendent of its Sunday School. He was a charter member of the Iberia M.W.A. Camp and continued his membership in good standing up to his death."

Letter from Ruthie ? to her grandmother, Elizabeth Learned, in Augusta, KS, in 1973. Virgil & Robert Papen visited Mrs. Learned and she gave them copy of Ruthie's letter. Hard to read. Was photostat of yellow tablet paper. Now in Robert Papen's file. States that Lawrence Woolery was son of Stephen Woolery and Kate Swearingen. My records do not show Stephen C. Woolery as being married to a Kate Swearingen only to Catherine Sailen (Saling) and Polly Shurley. May be a different Stephen but anyway apparently Lawrence married his lst cousin, Martha Annie B. Woolery, daughter of John Brisco Woolery in 1877.

Info from Donya Hoeppner (July 2000) has another daughter, Francis Mary Woolery, listed, but does not have a Charles Woolery listed.
