History:

Bethlehem Cemetery By David D. Grove

Bethlehem Cemetery is a beautiful little rural cemetery located in Cooper County, 17 miles south of Boonville and seven miles north of Syracuse and 1/4 miles west of State Highway #5. In this cemetery one finds on the monuments such names as Brubaker, Cordry, Eubank, Grove, Layne, Mayre, Sole, Watring, Varner, and other pioneer families. Like many cemeteries, it faced the problem of future maintenance and financial support.

Until a few weeks ago Bethlehem Cemetery stood bravely alone. It had no church, no town, no lodge, no civic group, no organization of any kind to give it care and financial support. Established in 1870, it was maintained and given loving care for many years by those in the locality who had kin persons buried there. These older generations are no longer alive and most of their descendants no live elsewhere. During the present generation it has been financially supported and cared for by relatively few people. This year, 1980, seven persons and the interest on 3 small bequests contributed a total of $196. Several other persons contributed some labor and / or material for its upkeep. For a number of years Eldon Brubaker and his wife, Martha, assisted by Jack Watring, have collected contributions and given it personal care and attention to keep it well cared for and beautiful. But, these people are advancing in years and there was no assurance that when they are gone there would be others to take their place. The question in the minds of those who care was, "When they are gone will Bethlehem Cemetery become unkempt, abandoned and forgotten?"

To solve this problem, living descendants, now scattered over many states have formed an organization named, The Bethlehem Cemetery Association. The president is Eldon Brubaker; vice president, Jack Watring; secretary-treasurer, Martha Brubaker; chairman of the Standing Committee to fill vacancies, Jewell Watring.

A total of 70 persons, most of them children, grandchildren or great-grandchildren of the families buried in Bethlehem Cemetery, have contributed a present total of $2,945.30 which is to be placed as a perpetual trust in a federally insured financial institution, the annual interest return to be used to support the cemetery, the principal of the trust to remain intact.

The Association will be open for new membership at all times.

Members of the newly formed Bethlehem Cemetery Association believe that through their cooperative effort, an adequate and permanent solution to the problem of maintenance and financial support of Bethlehem Cemetery for the years to come has been solved.

In the 1877 land atlas we find a cemetery symbol on Susan Carr land, at the location where the Bethlehem Cemetery was established in 1870. Possibly this was a family burial plot originally and then was taken into the cemetery of the Bethlehem Presbyterian Church.

Additional entries or changes noted in red were taken from the Cooper County Record of Deaths, while entries in blue are from obituaries, Justin Watkins, or the Missouri State Online Death Records.
