Coombes	Death of Mrs. H. D. Coombes On Dec. 12

	The Wooldridge community was saddened Thursday by the news of the death of Velma Coffman Coombes, wife of Dr. H. D. Coombes who died at her home in Canon City, Colorado, Wednesday, December 12 [1934], after a lingering illness. Mrs. Coombes was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Coffman. She was born in Wooldridge, June 9, 1909 and was 25 years old at the time of her death. Five years ago she went to Castle Rock, Colo., with her brother, Ewing, for her health. There, 3 years ago, she married Dr. Coombes. They have lived in Canon City 2 years, where the funeral was held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Claude L. Neal, Baptist minister of whose church she was a member. On Saturday at 1 o'clock at the home of her brother, Raymond Coffman in Wooldridge friends gathered to hear a brief comforting talk given by a friend, Harry Selck to the bereaved husband, brothers and relatives before her body was borne to the Copps Chapel cemetery to rest beside her mother and father. A brother and a sister. Velma Coffman as a young girl united with the Wooldridge Baptist church. She was a true Christian, and her sweetness of character and the patience with which she bore her sufferings, endeared her to all who knew her. She is survived by her husband, Dr. H. D. Coombes, and three brothers, Ewing and Raymond of Wooldridge, and Harold of Canon City, Colo. Relatives from Jefferson City who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Corine Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Stone, Mrs. Charles Kaufman and sons, Mrs. Will Stone, Mrs. C. Calvert and Bower Coffman, from near Boonville.

Locherer	Sarah; born in Sweden; died 05 Apr 1887 in Moniteau Township, Cooper County, Missouri; aged 63 years, 2 months; buried 07 Apr 1887; married; farmer; CC Record of Deaths; My (Mae Bruce) research has shown various spellings of their name: Locher/Locherer/Lachner. I have not found "Sarah" in the census records, but I do have "Mrs. Caroline Locherer" in the cemetery records (no dates or other identifying info on her.) There is a Francis J. S. Locherer in the cemetery (with a stone); I have determined that Francis is the son of Severine and Mary Locherer. The death record for Sarah has her born in Sweden and that is where these Locherer's were from. Altho I have not figured out if Sarah and Caroline and Mary are all the same person, I do think that Sarah's last name is probably spelled Locherer.

[1935] about 2 p.m. at his home 2 miles west of Wooldridge.

Mr. Williamson was the son of Elbert and Clara Campbell Williamson and was born in Andrew county, Mo., March 21, 1858. When a small boy he went with his parents to Illinois. Living there a few years the family moved back to Missouri. In 1888 he was united in marriage to Miss Ida McClanahan. During his early married life they moved to Oklahoma, where they lived several years. His wife passed away during this time and later he returned to Missouri.

Mr. Williamson was employed by the government until several years ago when he retired on account of his health and declining years. Since that time he made his home with his brother, James Williamson at the old Williamson home.

Mr. Williamson was a member of the Christian church, uniting with that faith in early manhood he was an honest, upright citizen.

The following relatives survive, a son, Troy, of Idaho, a brother, James Williamson, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Lamm.

The funeral service, which was held at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Lamm at Wooldridge on Thursday at 3 p.m. was attended by a large number of friends and relatives from Boonville, and surrounding towns. A talk was given by his friend, Dr. O. W. Cochran of Boonville, and interment was at Copp cemetery. The pallbearers were, Ira Adair, Theo. Diehl, H. H. Kaiser, W. J. Wooldridge, Sr., Paul Eager and Carl Hopkins.

Lewis Mills, age 70 years, passed away Monday morning, April 22 [1935], at the home of his niece, Mrs. George Renfrow, in Wooldridge. Mr. Mills was the son of John Jacob and Louisa Mills, was born in Cooper County near Wooldridge. Surviving are two sisters. Mrs. Katherine Wilcox of Fortuna, and Mrs. C. O. Scheibner of Wooldridge, besides a host of nieces and nephews, and many other relatives. He united with the Methodist church in early manhood.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at Copp's chapel by the reverend Bryon of California. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pall bearers were Harry Selck, Hugh Bruce, Albert Bruce, George Knapp, Otto Enloe, and Omar Stover.

Among those from a distance attending the funeral services of Lewis Mills were Mrs. Blanche Wagner and son Daniel Lee, of New Franklin, and Mr. Henry Timm and son, Harry, of Lone Elm.
