History:

Mark Geiger of Columbia, Missouri has done extensive research of the William Haas family. He was told that stones on these graves were still standing in about 1937 but has now grown up in brush. He found only pieces of the markers for William and Mary Haas. As they had a family, he thinks there might have been more graves in this area.

I believe this cemetery is located on the site of the old Haas winery and brewery located west of Harley Park in Boonville.
