Mr. Nichols was a member of the Wesley United Methodist Church in Sedalia. He was a retired school administrator and teacher. Among the many positions he held throughout his career were superintendent of school and basketball coach at Meadville, instructor of history and geopolitics at the University of Missouri-Columbia, history teacher at St. Charles High School, history and geography teacher at Jefferson City Junior College, a case worker for the Missouri State Correctional System, elementary principal at Smithton, elementary principal at Raymore-Peculiar and elementary supervisor at Tipton, Syracuse, and Fortuna prior to his retirement in September, 1972. Among Mr. Nichols' enduring assets was his sense of humor and his deep interest in keeping in touch with all his long-time friends. One of his remarkable talents was being able to walk on his hands. In the last decade, Mr. Nichols had donated a tract of land and money to the city of Otterville, and had been actively involved in promoting and nurturing a new city park on the south side of town, which was dedicated in June, 1997 as "Nichols Memorial Park". More land was donated and the park was expanded in 2005, when his farm and homestead of 63 years, "Dunroven", was sold. He is survived by two sons- John Franklin Nichols of the Kansas City area, and James Maurice Nichols, of Poughkeepsie, NY; and four grandchildren.
