History:

"There are two cemeteries here connected with the St. Paul's United Church of Christ; formerly St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church of Christ; and before that as St. Paul's German Evangelical Lutheran Church Cemetery.

The first cemetery, referred to as the "Old Cemetery" was a pioneer burying ground. No burial records were kept before 1866; but the cemetery is much older, as there are tombstones here bearing dates in the 1850's.

In 1904, an acre of ground was bought from Phillip Meisenheimer for a new cemetery; adjoining the church property. A Cemetery Association was formed and the congregation is working toward Perpetual Care for the future. These cemeteries are well fenced and well cared for."

The above is from an Article: "Clear Creek Township is Interesting Area of Cooper County", by Mrs. A. J. Hayes, "Daily News Correspondent".

Oakland School used to stand next to this cemetery and the original name may have been Oakland Cemetery. There are references to burials in an Oakland Cemetery that match burials in this cemetery. Thus both names are referenced in this record.

Information in black colored type is from the original canvass of this cemetery. Information in blue colored type is from the St. Paul German Evangelical Church records. Information in red colored type is also from the St. Paul German Evangelical Church records, but there is no indication that they are buried in this cemetery or another cemetery.
