Mt Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church
New Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church

Township:	T-46-N	Organized:	August 11, 1871
Range:	R-16-W	Disbanded:	Unknown
Section:	35	Active:	Unknown
Map:		Updated:	March 8, 2020

Cemetery: There is a cemetery associated with this church.

Area: Northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of the section About six miles south and west of Pisgah, Cooper County, Missouri.

Records: The location of the church records is unknown at present.

History:

New Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church
From "History of Howard and Cooper Counties Missouri", 1883

Cumberland Presbyterian Church-New Zion-Located on section twenty-six, Moniteau township, was organized August 11,1871, by W. W. Branin. The names of original members were Martha J. Miller, Catherine Lawson, Nancy Hollaway, Harriet J. Hollaway, Joseph Pierce, Margaret A. Thompson, L. C. McDaniel, Henry Bowers, P. P. Lawson, Caroline R. Bowers, Thomas L. Pierce, Susan J. Williams. The number of present membership is 100. Names of pastors are W. W. Branin, James E. F. Robertson and C. W McBride.

This church was built in 1879, and is a frame building, erected at a cost of $800. Number of scholars in Sabbath school is fifty; superintended by H. B. Sappington. The Sabbath school is sustained only during the summer months.

Mt. Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church
From "History of Cooper County Missouri" by W. F. Johnson, 1919

New Zion. Cumberland Presbyterian Church, is located in Moniteau township and was organized in 1871 by W. W. Branin, its first pastor. 1n 1883 it had a membership of 100. The names of the original members wore; Martha J. Miller, Catherine Lawson, Nancy Holloway, Harriett .I. Holloway, Joseph Pierce, Margaret A. Thompson, L. C. McDaniel, Henry hovers, P. P. Lawson, Caroline R. Bowers, Thomas L. Pierce, Susan J. Williams.

Mt. Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church
From "Mt. Zion Cumberland Presbyterian Church Cemetery", 1979

"The church, now standing here, was built in 1879. The building is in good repair. There is a good fence around the cemetery, adjoining the church yard and it is kept mowed. The earliest burials, on record, were in the 1800's one possibly in 1871."