Records: The history of the River of Life Assembly of God at this time is kept by the church office. Inquire as needed.

The church was originally organized on March 24, 1940 in a portable tabernacle on 7th Street in Boonville by Rev. E. E. Templeton, a church planter. Our first and previous building was 6th and Elm Streets, Boonville, Missouri 65233. One of our former pastors Rev. F. Earl Myer and current Senior Pastor Mike Letchworth, both currently serve the church. An extensive history of this church is in the process of being written by Sheila Letchworth.

The history of the River of Life Assembly of God is unknown at this time. Information was obtained from a 1996 phone book and from the Boonville, Missouri web site. Previously building was 6th and Elm Streets, Boonville, Missouri 65233
