History:

Tuscumbia Free-Will Baptist Church From "Tuscumbia Free-Will Baptist Church Cemetery Records"

In 1913, the congregation of the Free-Will Baptists purchased one acre of land adjoining the school grounds, from Mr. Dan Hawkins, and built a church and established a cemetery. Sometime about the middle of this century, the church was abandoned, as the people of the congregation had either passed away or moved away. The church building still stands.
