

Keosauqua Republican
Keosauqua, IA

22 June 1882

3/2

— Robert Hunter and wife, Keosauqua, started for Nebraska on Wednesday of this week on a visit of some weeks.

— Judge Robert Sloan, Keosauqua, one of the examiners of the law class at Iowa City, returned home on Tuesday.

— Don't forget to call on Millollen when you are in Farmington and see his fine display of watches, jewelry etc.

— Mrs. Judge Caldwell, of Little Rock, Arkansas, reached here on last Saturday and is visiting her sister Mrs. J. C. Knapp.

✓ — Mrs. Humphrey at Lebanon, widow of David Humphrey who died some years ago, died on last Sunday night at the advanced age of eighty years.

— Grey hairs prevented, dandruff removed, the scalp cleansed, and the hair made to grow thick by the use of Hall's Vegetable Sillian Hair Renewer.

— Mrs. Mary E. Job and children of St. Louis, and Mrs. Leon Monnet and niece of Ottumwa were here last week visiting Mrs. Daniel Faron.

— Mr. Alfred Mullen, of Bellville, Ill., has been visiting friends and relatives in Keosauqua and vicinity for the last two weeks. He returned to his home some days ago.

— George Fosnot returned to Keosauqua on last Friday from the Lake Superior region. He says that he saw but one shower during the two months he was absent.

— The referees sale of the Brookmeyer land near Lebanon June 15. resulted in the purchase of 140 acres by S. E. Vincent for $2,060 and 40 acres by A. A. Work for $400, a total of $2,460.

— The Mayor of Keosauqua has issued a proclamation to-day (Wednesday) for a meeting at the Opera House in the evening for the purpose of raising aid for the sufferers from the late storms in central Iowa.