PILOT GROVE NEWS.

From the Cooper County Leader.

—Mrs. J. M. Stites, who has been quite sick for the past ten days, at this writing is much better. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

—Died, at her residence near Prairie Lick, on Tuesday, January 12th, Mrs. Frank Garrett. She leaves two small children, one only a month old.

—Mrs. Slayer, of the German settlement, stepped out doors for something and left a small child in the room. When she returned the child's clothing had caught fire and was so badly burned that it died of its injury.

—Messrs. Jas. Hall, W. T. Davis and Chas. Long, school directors of this, Pilot Grove district, have purchased from the Methodist congregation the Methodist church: in which the public school will be opened as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. Price paid, $1,150.

—On the evening of January 6th, at his residence, Rev. Shaefer pronounced Mr. Joseph Verts and Miss Florence Figgins, husband and wife. Mr. Verts is a highly respected citizen and a splendid wood work-
