A large lot of garden seed was re ceived here last week from the Agricultu ral Department by the members of the Central Missouri Horticul tural Association.

J. R. Walker and Col. L. V. Steph ens, of Boonville, were in the city las tight, registered at Sibert's Hotel.
They were in Sedalia to attend the Salvation Army.—Benton, March 15.

A. C. Gaughlin, a prominent mem ber of the Knights of Labor of St.
Louis, was announced to speak last ight at Theatrel Hall on the prin ciples, objects and aims of the Knights of Labor.

An effort should be made to have the bridge across the river here opened to public travel. It would benefit the merchan tise of the city and would be a con venience to the people living on the other side.

The painters and paper hangers have done a fine, artistic lot of work in papering, painting and decora ting the interior of the Methodist church. It presents a very attractive appearance now.

The marriage of Miss Ihlam Spahr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Spahr, of this city, and Dr. E. L. Williams, United States Commissioner of Alaska, Alaska, will take place at the Methodist church in this city this morning at ten o'clock.

The East Mail train went through all right from St. Louis to Kansas City last Monday morning, arriving at its destination five minutes ahead of time.
The St. Louis papers got to Boonville at 11:15 in the morning five hours earlier than usual.

Our popular barber, E. Collis, is starting the building boom for this sea son. Some time since he sold his pro perty on 6th street, bought a lot on South 15th Street and is now erecting a nice little residence thereon. Let the good work go on.

Your attention is called to the ad vertisement of R. C. Wells, the popu lar butcher. He keeps the very best and freshest meat, always has a large and choice stock on hand and every one may be sure of getting just what they wish when dealing with him.

A splendid crayon portrait of Mayor J. C. Biglow adorns the walls of the city hall. It was presented to the council at its meeting on Wednes day night of last week by the popular photographer and artist, Mr. J. C.
Moore, and is a piece of work a splendid likeness and ornament to the council chamber and an improve tment to the library of the city.

The Kiowa Congregation of this city in honor of building a new church soon.
It will be built on a lot of the Francis diagonal, but the plans will not be drawn well (sic money is raised and the size and style of the structure will depend upon the amount顷iored). The work of securing subscriptions to a building
