

FROM PILOT GROVE.

—The horse show Saturday was poorly attended.

—The Baptist pulpit was filled by Rev. Menifce, Sunday night.

—Miss Susie Fray and Miss Harris were visiting in town last week.

—John D. McCutchen succeeds A. H. Thruston in the postoffice.

—Miss Grace McCutchen attended church services at Bethel, Sunday.

—Rev. Dr. Godbey preached at the Methodist church Sunday night.

—John T. Steele lives with us. John will teach the Mt. Vernon school next year.

—Prof. C. B. Johnson has been elected to the principalship of the public school here.

—Prof. D. L. Roe's health is not much improved. He is still unable to attend school duties.

—George Phillips, who lives in Buffalo Prairie, suffered the loss of his residence, Monday, by fire.

—The Misses Lampton returned to Sedalla, Monday, after several days visit to the Misses Pugh.

—H. L. Stites was in town last week. He is studying book-keeping in the Commercial College at Sedalla.

—Mrs. Claggett left for Cañon City, Col., last week to join her husband, Rev. T. J. Claggett, who has located there in the ministerial field.