

Richard A. Jolly

From the Mexico Ledger: Richard A. Jolly, aged 48 years, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. L. W. Jolly, in Northwest Mexico, at 12:40 o'clock Saturday morning, March 19th. Deceased had been in poor health since June, 1896, and confined to his room since November, 1897. He died the result of a complicated stomach trouble. Deceased was born in Cooper county, Mo., on Feb 3, 1850.

[From: Boonville Weekly Advertiser, 25 Mar 1898, 1/2]

Mrs. Catherine Williams

From the California Democrat, March 18th: Mrs. Catherine Williams, mother of Mrs. Jas. L. Hazell, of this city, died of pneumonia, at her home near Columbus, Ohio, Friday last, aged 78 years. She was a daughter of the late Judge weight, of Cooper county, Mo., and sister of Mrs.

Bob McCulloch. Her husband died in 1860, and five children are left -- three daughters, including Mrs. Hazell of this city, and two sons. She was a member of the Methodist church, and visited her daughter here some three years ago. Mrs. Hazell reached her mother's bedside two or three days previous to her death.

[From: Boonville Weekly Advertiser, 25 Mar 1898, 1/2]

—From the Mexico Ledger: Richard A. Jolly, aged 48 years, died at the home of his mother, Mrs. L. W. Jolly, in Northwest Mexico, at 12:40 o'clock Saturday morning, March 19th. Deceased had been in poor health since June, 1896, and confined to his room since November, 1897. He died the result of a complicated stomach trouble. Deceased was born in Cooper county, Mo., on Feb. 3, 1850.

—From the California Democrat, March 18th: Mrs. Catherine Williams, mother of Mrs. Jas. L. Hazell, of this city, died of pneumonia, at her home near Columbus, Ohio, Friday last, aged 78 years. She was a daughter of the late Judge Weight, of Cooper county, Mo., and sister of Mrs. Bob McCulloch. Her husband died in 1860, and five children are left—three daughters, including Mrs. Hazell of this city, and two sons. She was a member of the Methodist church, and visited her daughter here some three years ago. Mrs. Hazell reached her mother's bedside two or three days previous to her death.