

CENTRAL MISSOURI REPUBLICAN
12 Jan 1899 3/5

News reached this city last Monday from Guyers Ford that Henry Stone was killed accidentally while engaged in moving a house. The report was that he had placed the house on a sled and was moving it with horses and mules. In some way stone slipped and fell under the runners and was killed before he could be rescued.

News reached this city last Monday from Guyers Ford that Henry Stone was killed accidentally while engaged in moving a house. The report was that he had placed the house on a sled and was moving it with horses and mules. In some way Stone slipped and fell under the runners and was ~~rescued~~ rescued before he could be rescued.