

SEDALIA CAPITAL
25 May 1899 1/4

Porter Stone's Trial.

Porter E. Stone, formerly of this city, is now on trial at Clinton for the killing of Roy Williams, a coachman in the employ of Stone's wife. The Clinton Democrat, summarizing the evidence, makes out a clear case of self defense for Porter, and it is not at all likely that the jury will convict him even of a minor grade of manslaughter.