

George Heitzman, of Blackwater township, took the train here for Boonville Saturday.

Miss Emma Davis left for St. Louis Saturday morning to resume her duties as stenographer.

Mary McCutchen, who has been quite sick with an attack of scarlet fever, is convalescing.

Mrs. John A. Ross was called to Pleasant Green Sunday by the serious illness of her mother.

Wyatt Wyan, of near Bell Air, has sold his fine 200-acre farm to Peter Muntze! for $55 per acre.

A. P. Franse came up from Jefferson City Friday morning on business returning home Saturday.

Ross' have received Early Ohio, Burbanks and Early Rose seed potatoes, 80c to $1.20 per bushel.

A. H. Wallje, one of our farmer friends of north of town called Saturday to renew his subscription.

C. J. Harris, of St. Louis, and E. N. Wood, of Boonville, came up Saturday and spent Sunday here.

Mrs. P. C. Marschall went to Boonville Thursday of last week and visited with relatives until Sunday.

A. F. Wolfson went to St. Louis Saturday night where he will purchase his spring stock of merchandise.

W. W. Trent, deputy county surveyor, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. G. C. Jones, last Thursday.

E. M. Harriman Sundayed with his brother Briggs, who is attending school at Missouri Valley college.

W. G. Pendleton and wife of Boonville, spent Sunday here the guest of his mother, Mrs. C. A. Pendleton.

The C. J. Harris Lumber Co. received two car loads of lumber from Louisiana and one car load of Missouri river sand from Boonville this week.

Ellis Davis, accompanied by his sister, Miss Addie, of Boonville, attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Tavenner, Sunday.

Alexander Smith, who died a few days ago in Cole county, claimed to be 118 years old. Until six years ago he supported himself.

G. V. Judy and A. C. Harriman have two car loads of Shorthorns and Herefords which they will ship to California in the near future.

Hon. R. M. Embry and family of California were the guests at the home of Dr. T. O. Pendleton the latter part of last week and the first of this.

Have several rich black land farms to sell at a great bargain in Moniteau county, Mo.,
T. J. SIMPSON,
Clarksburg, Mo.

We wonder who the two young gentlemen were whose thoughts ran carnationward while attending services at the M. E. church last Sunday evening.

Miss Helen Tutt who is attending the academy went up to Pleasant Green Friday afternoon to remain over Sunday with her parents. She was accompanied by Miss Emma Marschall.

J. G. Powers brought his daughter, Miss Jessie, over Monday and arranged for her to enter the public school. Miss Jessie was here early in the term and made splendid progress as a student.

Regular communication of Wm. D. Muir Lodge, No. 277, A. F. & A. M., Friday evening, March 24. Work in third degree. All members of the order are invited to be present.

George Maddex Maddex made a business trip to Tipton yesterday. He says he will never go that far away from home again as his face is not good at any of the eating houses.

← Smith

← Maddex