

2 Nov 1905

3/3

Frank Williams and Miss Pearl Allin were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, near Lakota, last Tuesday week. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, of near Lakota, and is a prosperous young farmer. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Albin, and is well known in that vicinity. A happy voyage through life is the wish of their many friends.

Leslie Rickman and Miss Ada Yancey stole a march on their many friends by going to California last Tuesday week and being married, the pastor of the California Methodist church officiating. The groom is the grandson of "Uncle Urb Davis," of Clarks Fork, and is an energetic young farmer, of near Pisgah. The bride is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Layton Yancey, of Pisgah, and is one of the most popular young ladies of this vicinity. One and all join in congratulations, and wish the young couple much joy. They will reside on a farm near Pisgah.

Mr. Oliver Haley and Miss Clara Schilb were united in marriage at the bride's home near Prairie Home, Wednesday, October 25, at twelve o'clock. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Haley, of Fortuna and is one of the most prosperous young men of that place. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schilb, of near Prairie Home vicinity. After the ceremony the young couple, together with their near relatives partook of a most sumptuous feast spread in the dining room. Their many friends join in hearty congratulations and best wishes.

3/2

PISGAH.

Miss Beulah and Mrs. Riley Edwards are seriously ill.

Henry Langkop bought a mule from T. H. Morris for $75.

T. E. Hurt bought a good calf at the Hugh B. Morris sale for $10.

Theodore Langkop bought a fine team of carriage horses last week for $266.

Will Morris bought a good mule colt at the Langkop sale for $56.50.

Will Morris, Sr. bought a good two year old mare at his father's sale for $135.

Mr. James Hurt and family, of Cass county, are the guests of relatives near here.

Ira S. Arnold bought three calves at Mrs. Langkop's sale last Friday for $10 per head.

Till Stewart, of near here, bought a good yearling mule from Hugh B. Morris for $97.50.

Walter Barron has ordered the Central Missouri Republican sent to his son-in-law, George Brandes, of Denver, Colorado.

Snode Morris bought six two year old steers at the Morris sale for $35 per head, and six steers from Will Morris for $46.50 per head.