

Boonville Weekly Advertiser

26 Oct 1906

5/4

✓ Mrs. Polly A. Grissim of Mount Herman was the guest of her nephew Mr. James Renison Sunday and Monday.

Doctor and Mrs. O. W. Cochran were in Jefferson City Thursday visiting the penitentiary and the state capitol.

Mr. John W. Eager was called to Lupus Monday to the bedside of his son-in-law, Mr. James Hickam who is quite sick.

Mr. Alfred Grosenbacher and son Walter both of Boonville were here Friday shaking hands with their many friends.

Misses Maud Mary and Novel Allen, were guests of their aunt Miss Emma Allen at Clarks Fork during Saturday and Sunday.

The Highland school base ball team near Overton, and the Gooch Mill base ball team met at the latter place Saturday October 20, and had quite an interesting game. The score stood 31 to 3 in favor of the Gooch Mill boys. "They are hard to beat."