

Boonville Weekly Advertiser

18 Jan 1907

8/2

—Married, last Thursday morning, in Boonville, Justice Louis Edwards officiating, Mr. Raymond Carey and Miss Mollie Carter, both of the young folks, being of Mt. Herman community. The news of the wedding of these well known young people will come as a surprise to their many friends in the county.

—Frank Kaiser and his brother Charlie, of Fayette, have bought the skating rink privileges from Messrs Scott and Roberts. They have had the hall thoroughly overhauled, and had their opening Wednesday night. They have 150 pair of ball bearing skates and are prepared to accommodate all who attend with first class skates.

—Hirlinger & Huber have moved their confectionery and bakery into the Andrews building two doors North of their former location, which they have had remodeled and put in order for their special business. When the finishing touches are applied they will have an elegant place in which to do business.

—Mrs. Cramer, the wife of Gabe Cramer, a prominent and well known farmer of Lamine, died on Tuesday night January 15th. The funeral was conducted from Old Lamine Christian church Thursday afternoon to the Cemetery near the church. She was born near Cincinnati, Ohio, January 22, 1837, and was married on Dec. 2, 1877. Besides a husband she leaves a son and two daughters. She was a good woman and will be missed by her neighbors as well as by her family.