

FULTON WEEKLY GAZETTE

3 Jan 1908 1/1

MRS. R. G. ANTHONY DEAD.

In the death of Mrs. R. G. Anthony, who died at her home near Boydsville, on last Sunday the community in which she lived, lost one of its best citizens. She had long been a sufferer with rheumatism and for some weeks previous to her death suffered with a complication of diseases.

✓ Burial took place at Dry Fork churchyard on Monday, after funeral services by Rev. W. H. Burnham, of Fulton.

Mrs. Anthony's maiden name was Mary Banks Moore, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Banks Moore, being early settlers and leading citizens of Round Prairie township. She was first married to A. W. Howison, to which union the following surviving sons were born: Charles, Alex., Hardin and Cecil Howison; one daughter, Miss Lura Anthony, also mourns her death, as well as a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Foster, Lynchburg, Va., and two brothers, James E. and John W. Moore, of this county.

Mrs. Anthony was 63 years old, was a member of the Baptist church; and was an excellent Christian lady. The sorrowing ones have the sympathy of all.