The members of the Sedalia police force will change "beats" at midnight tonight and commence their New Year's patrol, as follows:
Ohio street—Day, Baley; night, Wood.
Main street—Day, Jackson; night, Thompson.
East Sedalia—Day, Robertson; night, Eads.
North Sedalia—Redmon.
Sanitary officer—John H. Kruse.

M. Lee Is Eighty-Three.

William M. Lee, an aged citizen of the Beaman community, celebrated his 83rd birthday Monday. Mr. Lee was born in Madison county, Kentucky, December 28, 1825. He came to Missouri in 1837. His wife and two sons, W. T. and R. G. Lee, are still living. His home was crowded with grandchildren, children and friends who came to help celebrate with him. Below are a few who were present.

To Keep Open House.

The Young People's Local union of this city will keep open house New Year's night at the First Christian church. All the young people of the city are invited to be present.

Miss Emma Weir is chairman, Miss Margaret McDaniels chairman of the refreshments committee, Miss Grace Campbell is chairman of the decorations committee and Miss Essie Morrison is chairman of the entertainment committee.

Burned Patients Improving.

Jesse and Pearl Pursley, who were severely burned Sunday morning while trying to extinguish a fire that resulted in the death of their mother, are getting along very nicely, but it will be a week before they will be able to be up and around.

Revival Will Close.

The revival services at the Church of Christ, Twelfth and Thomson streets, will close with tonight's meeting. Following the services baptism will be made. Everyone is welcome and urged to attend.

Sovereign Manager Present.

At the regular meeting of Sedalia camp No. 16, W. O. W., last night routine business was transacted, followed by an interesting social session. State and Sovereign Manager J. Fitzgerald, of Kansas City, was present and made a short talk. On Monday night, January 11, a deputy from Kansas City will be sent here and an endeavor will be made to increase the lodge membership.
