

3/4

share in the blacksmith shop to Frank Roedel consideration $900. Mr. Roedel owned one-half interest in this shop before but sold on account of ill health. He is now improving and is going to resume his trade. Mr. Knirium has not decided where he will locate.

A spelling bee was given at the Robinson school Friday night of last week. A large crowd was present. Oak Grove, Liberty, Salem, Carlos, Spice Creek, Washington, Hazel Dell, Providence and Prairie Home schools were represented. Teachers present were: Misses Grace Monroe, Mary Hurt, Alma Johnston, Julia Korsen. Messrs. R. R. Steiner, L. H. Morris, L. S. Swanstone and G. M. Morris. The ciphering was very close, each and every school represented taking part, but Emil Derendinger, of Robinson school, held the floor in spite of all the lightning strikers. Birch Morris is teacher at Robinson.

Read This.

LEXINGTON, Mo., July 31, 1908. This is to certify that after years of suffering and escaping a serious operation, I was advised to use all's Texas Wonder for kidney, bladder and rheumatic troubles. It cured me and I praise it to others. FRED T. HIX, The Lumberman. Sold by all Druggists.

NEW LEBANON.

Maud Pollard Sundayed at the home of Mae Coffman. Mrs. Jno. Hirst was a passenger to Boonville Wednesday. Elmer Fairfax was transacting business in Otterville Friday. Mr. and Mrs. John Moon are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy. Rev. M. L. Thomas, of Columbia, Mo., was the guest of relatives and friends here Friday. Frank Spencer and Elizabeth Hockaday surprised their many friends and were married in Tipton Tuesday. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Kansas City. From there they went to Stanton, New Mexico to visit at the home of J. Spencer, a brother of the groom.

Mrs. Lizzie Cordry and mother returned Wednesday from a few days visit with relatives near Syracuse. Tuesday was "Grandma's

Prof. R. C. Hogue filled his appointment as band director one day late last week on account of poor train service. The boys are getting down to business with their music. Several of the horns were sent away for repairs, during the holidays. Some have purchased new instruments and altogether we are proud of our band. All picnics or other gatherings, who wish their services during the coming season will have to speak soon.

The Meanest Man in Town is the one who always wears a frown, is cross and disagreeable, and is short and sharp in his answers. Nine cases out of ten it's the not poor fellow's fault, it's his liver and digestion that make him feel so miserable, he can't help being disagreeable. Are you in danger of getting into that condition? Then start at once taking Ballard's Herbine for your liver—the safe, sure and reliable vegetable regulator. Sold by Huber Bros.

PRAIRIE LICK.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnmeyer, visited at the home of Albert Jaeger, Sunday.

Mrs. Louis Walther is suffering from the effects of a badly bruised hand received last week by falling on the ice.

Martin Fuser filled his ice-house with six inch ice last week. Mr. Fuser fills his house every winter even if the ice is but three inches thick.

John McNaughton, returned to his home in Kansas City, Mo., Saturday after attending the funeral of his brother-in-law Henry Drechsel.

A. H. Moehle, sold to G. A. Brownfield six nice porkers, receiving $5.85 per hundred. Mr. Brownfield will ship a carload to St. Louis Saturday.

Chas. Bassler, and daughter, Mrs. Sullivan, of Kansas City, Mo., returned home Monday, after spending several days with relatives in West Boonville.

Wm. Torbeck, John Felton and A. H. Moehle, were among those that delivered wheat at Prairie Lick Elevator last week. Torbeck received $1.02, Felton, $.98, and Moehle $1.00 per bushel.

Too Much Face

You feel as if you had one face too many when you have Neuralgia

COTTON.

Joseph Snodgrass and wife, of Pisgah visited relatives at Cotton last week.

Mrs. Kate Carey, of Tipton, visited relatives and friends at Cotton last week.

Miss Amanda Patrick is making an extended visit at Jasper City the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. J. Deakins.

Married at Tipton, Sunday, January 10, Lonnie McClam, of Tipton, and Miss Emma Patterson, of Cotton.

Chas. Wright and wife, accompanied by John Ison and family made a business trip to Sedalia the first of the week.

John Bell moved to the farm he recently purchased at Round Hill; Neal Allison took possession of the farm vacated by Dr. Bell and Roy Pedego, the Allison farm.

GOOCH MILL.

W. P. Nevins made a business trip to Lupus, Thursday.

Arthur Hagan transacted business at Wooldridge, Friday.

Hagan and Bower Hickam, of near Boonville, were Gooch Mill visitors Thursday.

Jewett Windsor, of Boonville, spent Saturday with his uncle, G. W. Jewett, and family.

L. A. D. Manson returned home Saturday from Boonville, where he had spent several days.

Oll Vaughn was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Vaughn, at Lupus, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Rose Bregnaath was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bregnaath, at Boonville, the latter part of last week.

Edgar Rannison and wife, of Prairie Home, were guests of Mrs. Rannison's mother, Mrs. Fred Hertzberg, Saturday and Sunday.

Brave Fire Laddies

often receive severe burns, putting out fires; then use Bucklen's Arnica Salve and forget them. It soon drives out pain. For Burns, Scalds, Wounds, Cuts and Bruises its earth's greatest healer. Quickly cures Skin Eruptions, Old Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Felons; best Pile cure made. Relief is instant. 25c at Wm. Mittelbach's.

Rennison