share in the blacksmith shop to Frank Roedel; consideration $500.
Mr. Roedel owned one-half interest in this shop before but sold out on account of ill health. He is now improving and it is going to resume his trade. Mr. Knirium has not decided where he will locate.

A spelling bee was given at the Robinson school Friday night of last week. A large crowd was present.
Oak Grove, Liberty, Salem, Carlos, Spicew Creek, Washington, Hazel Dell, Providence and Prairie Home schools were represented.
Teachers present were: Misses Grace Monroe, Mary Hurt, Alma Johnston, Julia Korsen. Messrs. R. R. Steinet, H. H. Morris, L. S. Swanstone and G. M. Morris. The elphering was very close, each and every school represented taking part, but Emil Dorozynger, of Robinson school, held the floor in spite of all the lightning strikers. Birch Morris is teacher at Robinson.

LEXINGTON, Mo., July 31, 1908.
This is to certify that after year of suffering and escaping a serious operation, I was advised to use all's Texas Wonder for kidney adder and rheumatic troubles.
It cured me and I praise it to others.

C. Hogue filled his appointment as band director one day late last week on account of poor train service. The boys are getting down to business with their music. Several of the horns were sent away for repairs, during the holidays. Some have purchased new instruments and altogether we are proud of our band. All picnics or other gatherings who wish their services during the coming season will have to speak soon.

The Meanest Man in Town is the one who always wears a frown, is cross and disagreeable, and is short and sharp in his answers. Nine cases out of ten it's the not the poor fellow's fault; it's his liver and digestion that make him feel so miserable, he can't help being disagreeable. Are you in danger of getting into that condition?
Then start at once taking Ballard's Herbicide for your liver—the safe, sure and reliable vegetable regulator. Sold by Huber Bros.
