

A Record of Current Events,
Gathered by Our Regular Correspondents.

OTTERVILLE.

Mrs. Mollie Ames visited in St. Louis last week.

J. F. Maness returned from Oklahoma Saturday, and Sunday was a passenger to Houstonia.

Mrs. Lou Brunk, of Jefferson City, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Leach, north of town.

J. P. Anthony went Tuesday to New Franklin where he will make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Mary Dodson.

Elza Lewis and family came down from Lamonte and spent their Thanksgiving with relatives and friends out east of the river.

Mr. Harry Hotsenpiller of Stony Point, and Miss Mettie Steele of near Byberry, were united in marriage at Sedalia, on the 24th. Wednesday.

Geo. and Tom Neal and Les Hogan, all enterprising farmers out east of town, each received this week a coop—cock and two hens—of Bourbon Red turkeys, from Cave City, Ky. They were fine looking birds.

Mrs. Jno. D. Moon, formerly Miss Nellie Hurst, died at their residence near Pleasant Green at 11:30 o'clock, Thursday, Nov. 25. Mrs. Moon was 22 years of age and had been married about two years, and leaves, besides her husband, a little son about eight or nine months old. She was buried at Tipton.

Rev. J. H. Hendrix of Texas, the leading Evangelist in the C. P. church, and who has held meetings in Arkansas, Indiana, California, Tennessee, Texas, Kentucky, and Missonri with wonderful success and under whose preaching thousands have been converted, commenced a meeting at the C. P. church Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., Nov. 28th.—Mail.

Eczema is Now Curable.

ZEMO, a clean liquid for external use, stops itching instantly and permanently cures eczema and every

*Central Missouri
Republican
2 Dec 1909
7/3*

The trains leaving at 9:47 p. m. and 1:57 a. m. both give "over night service" to St. Louis.

The Katy Limited

—the after noon train—is a spick and span new train with observation cars and modern reclining chair cars. It is a limited train of unlimited comforts—an "extra fare" train minus the extra fare.

For tickets and berths, see or telephone

T. F. Waltz

Ticket Agent, Boonville, Mo.