

Boonville Weekly Advertiser

17 Dec 1909

8/4

—A beautiful line of Umbrellas at Chilton & Co.

—Lawrence Spahr, of near Bunceton, was the guest of Boonville relatives several days last week.

—Mrs. A. M. Harrison, who has been visiting in St. Louis, came home the first of the week.

—Mrs. D. Lionberger, who has been visiting friends and relatives in St. Louis, came home Tuesday.

—Miss Annie Chapman editor-in-chief of the Rocheport Progress, was a Boonville visitor Monday.

—Mrs. Walter Windsor entertained as her guest Monday and Tuesday, Miss Nellie Owen, of Clark's Fork.

—Mrs. Mary Sombart and daughter, Mrs. Sutherland, of Chicago, are guests of Boonville friends and relatives.

—Mrs. Leonora Hogan of Otterville who has been the guest of her brother L. P. Starke returned home last Thursday.

—Rev. D. Williams, assistant attorney for the Missouri Pacific Railroad company, was looking after business for the company in Warsaw the first of the week.

—J. H. Gillespie and W. H. Eades, prominent Blackwater farmers, were at the county seat Saturday, and dropped in while here and had their old family paper checked up for another year.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Edwin G. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller, of this city, and Miss Ellen Baunister, of Colorado. They will be married at the home of Mr. Miller's parents, in Boonville, December 24th.

—Mrs. Amanda S. Hurt, of St. Louis died on December 12th, at the home of her son in that city. She was born in Rock Castle County, Kentucky, January 12th, 1833. She was the wife of the late J. B. Hurt, (known by some as uncle Johnnie Whistletrigger) and for many years resided in Boonville. The remains were brought to Boonville, and were taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Back, where funeral services was held and the body interred by the side of her husband in Walnut Grove cemetery.