

6/2

Wagenknecht

Grissum

Clarence Cordry of near Bunce-ton and C. G. Williams of Boon-ville were among the successful ones in passing the recent exami-nation throughout this state for special agents, census bureau.

J. F. Grissum, residing on route one out of Boonville, was a Repub-lican caller Friday. Mr. Grissum has been laid up for eighteen weeks with a bad arm, the result of a mule kick. The same mule put Mr. Grissum out of work once be-fore and he says he immediately cashed said mule and his mate for $450, following the second kick.

Lewis Rose has been very sick at his home in Sedalia. His brother James, Ed Shoemaker and Mrs. Martha Guy, of east of the river, went to his bedside Thursday.

Emmet Monroe left Tuesday for Sedalia, and started from there that night to Hunter, Arkansas, where he expects to remain some time with his brother, Dr. U. S. Mon-roe.

Mrs. Martha Hartford died at the home of her son, 5 miles north of Otterville on January 9, 1910. She had been in poor health for more than a year, and her death was not unexpected. Funeral services were conducted at the place of her death January 10 at 11 a. m., after which interment was in the New Lebanon cemetery.

Henry Wagenknecht was born in Meclenburg, Schwerreen, Germany, July 6, 1833. He was born, bap-tized and confirmed in Lutheran church, coming to United States in 1854, and spent two years in Chi-cago, Ill.; and from there he came to Otterville where he lived nine years, and then moved to his farm, 5 miles south of Otterville, where he lived until he died, January 11, 1910. He was presiding judge of the Morgan county court for 8 years. He was true to the trust conferred by the people in his election to of-fice, and their interests were faith-fully served by him. Funeral was conducted at the family residence and burial was made in Odd Fel-low's cemetery at Otterville—Mail.

You make no muss with PUT-NAM FADELESS DYES, as they do not stain the hands or spot the kettle.

GOOCH MILL.

Mrs. Levi Shepherd is reported quite ill.

E. S. DeVaux is on the sick list this week.

Arthur Hagan was a visitor at Lupus, Sunday.

Wm. Johnston of Prairie Home was a visitor here Friday.

Miss Nellie Cochran was shop-ping in Boonville Tuesday.

Mrs. Clark McArthur is suffer-ing from a very severe attack of appendicitis.

Kelly Manson spent Tuesday and Wednesday with his brother, J. L. Manson, and family of Prairie Home.

Misses Lena and Mabel Potter spent Friday and Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Lily Hampton, of Wooldridge.

Miss Georgia Vaughn returned to her home at Lupus, Sunday, af-ter a two weeks visit with her sis-ter, Mrs. Eola Case.

Sylvester Schilb who has been employed as salesman in a mer-cantile store at Jamestown for the past four months, returned to his home near here, last week.

On Saturday evening, January 15th, the W. O. W. lodge and ladies' circle gave an oyster supper at the hall. After supper dancing was indulged in until a late hour. A large crowd was present and all report a delightful time. The out-of-town guests were Miss Georgia Vaughn, Messrs. Hutchison and Robert Moore of Lupus; George Brockman and Newton Good of Wooldridge; Wm. Karm and daughter Miss Margaret and Mrs. Martha Vaughn of Overton; A. W. Farris, of Oklahoma City, Okla-homa.