OTTERVILLE.

Elmer Bell, an employee in the office of Chicago Northwestern road at Kansas City, is spending the week here with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spencer, who have been visiting here for the past month, returned to their home at Raton, New Mexico, Sunday.

A telegram was received Sunday by A. H. Smith stating that his son Lloyd, who is in the U. S. Army in Arizona, was very sick. Later advices state that he is some better.

Smith

Mrs. Peggy Reed, who has been confined to her bed with rheumatism at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Will Streit, is slowly improving.

Born, Sunday, January 23, 1910, to Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Case, northwest of town, a daughter. The mother and little girl are getting along nicely and H. D. is wearing a "smile that won't come off".

Case

Mrs. Nettie Earl, who is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Callahan, while eating oysters, found in them what is supposed to be a pearl. It is very smooth and as large as a small pea, and thought to be very valuable.
