

Central Missouri Republican
19 Jun 1913
6/2

Jack Cartner who a few weeks ago was severely hurt by a boy who had escaped from the Training school, was taken to his home Monday by his brother-in-law, Frank Runkle at whose home he had been for a week or more. Outside of his injured arm, Mr. Cartner was experiencing but little pain when taken home.