

At the election called for that purpose Saturday, the school districts of Mount Etna, County Line, Brick, Bente (or Gillum), Cline and Otterville voted themselves into a consolidated district, to be known as "Consolidated District No. 2 of Cooper County." There was a good turnout to the election, 177 votes being cast, of which 115 were for the proposition and 62 against it. After the district was thus organized, the following board of directors was elected: For three years, H. D. Case, Dr. J. B. Norman; for two years, Judge August Schupp, J. A. McManus; for the short term, Aubrey Laws and C. G. Norris.
