

Earl Easter, an inmate of the Training school and who several weeks ago entered the house of Jack Cartner about six miles south of Boonville evidently to steal some clothing with which to exchange his school garb, and when found by Mr. Cartner assaulted him with a deadly weapon, plead guilty to felonious assault and was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary. Easter also entered a plea of guilty to the charge of burglary and received a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary, term to begin at the conclusion of the first term named. Easter is about twenty years of age and has many of the marks of criminality. While at the school he gave the officers much trouble.
