

1914, Miss Vina Rockwood, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rockwood, became the bride of Mr. Elliott Stegner, the wedding taking place at the beautiful country home one mile south of Pilot Grove.

With Mrs. Mason at the piano, Miss Alice Moore sang a beautiful love song, following which the bridal party entered the parlor, where in fitting words Rev. D. S. Kelley united the lives of these two young people. The attendants were Mr. Leonard Brownfield and Miss Leona Rockwood, sister of the bride. The home was artistically decorated in white and green and the bride was beautifully gowned in white crepe. Following congratulations a dainty wedding supper was served.

On Wednesday, January 7, 1914, Mr. Walter Edward Stegner took as his bride Miss Pearl Elliott Haley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Haley, the wedding being at the country home of the bride two miles south of town.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the bride and groom, attended by Miss Martha Haley, sister of the bride, and Mr. Stanley Schlotzhauer, entered the parlor, where in the presence of about thirty relatives they were married by Rev. D. S. Kelley. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue, the decorations of the parlor being white. Later in the evening a wedding supper was served to the immediate members of the family. Many useful and beautiful gifts were given by their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Stegner will spend their honeymoon at Devon, Kansas as guests of his sister, Mrs. John Mowrey, and after their return here will be at home on their farm near Bell Air.

These brothers and their wives are popular young people of our neighborhood and have many friends here, who wish them all possible good throughout their married lives. On December 23 the youngest brother, Elmer Stegner took as his bride Miss Alma Schlotzhauer, making 3 Benedicts in the Stegner family, in that number of weeks. All these young men are prosperous farmers of high standing and the homes they will establish with their young wives will be a good to their communities. The Record extends to them all heartiest good wishes.

Stephens College Debt Paid

Stephens College, a Baptist college for women at Columbia, has at last cleared the $70,000 debt which has long threatened that institution and caused much concern. Popular subscriptions brought in $8,000 more than obligations and there is great rejoicing in the Baptist ranks and among the friends of the school.

These was one $10,000, four $5,000, twelve $1,000 subscriptions, and hundreds of other liberal donations. A new era seems to be opening for Stephens College.
