

8/3

—Herman Zuzak of the Wonder Store left Sunday night on a business visit to Chicago.

—Mrs. Mary Miller, of Brighton, Ill., is visiting her brother, Chas. B. Kloethe, on Sixth street.

—Miss Bernice Ranken attended the public school commencement exercises in Pilot Grove last Friday.

—We are the only house in Central Missouri that can fit you in all this season's latest style suits, and save you from $3 to $8. F. & A. Victor.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. Hirsch went to Versailles Sunday to spend a few days with their son, Hile Hirsch, and family.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trigg and son, Ewing, have returned from Southern California, where they spent the winter.

—M. E. Schmidt is in Jefferson City this week, packing and shipping the household goods of Mrs. J. F. Gmelich.

—Mrs. Gertrude Sommers and Miss Annie Smiley went to Fulton, Mo., Tuesday for a few days visit with friends in that city.

—H. H. Chase, manager of the Washclean Company, was called to Omaha Monday, on account of the death of a sister.

—Henry H. Parrish and Carrie Freeman, both of Blackwater, were united in marriage by justice of the peace, C. G. Miller, in his office, last Saturday.

—New Mushroom and Tango shirts at Victors.

—The general opinion is that the freeze of Sunday night has not injured the fruit in this locality to any great extent. Mercury got as low as 28 degrees.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Spahr and Miss Callie Spahr returned Tuesday to their home in Kansas City, after a week's visit with Boonville relatives.

—Mrs. E. C. Sumner and little daughter of Milford, Illinois, are in Boonville visiting the lady's sister, Mrs. Louis Roeder, and family of Sixth street.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. Wesley Smith and Mrs. A. H. Stephens drove to Buceton Sunday afternoon in the latter's car, and at night, Rev. Smith preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the high school in the Presbyterian church to a large and appreciative audience.

—City Collector C. F. Arpe has materially improved the acoustics of his office by putting into effect an original idea of his own. In addition to the improved acoustics, the office is made prettier. And the cost is light.

—The "Merchants Delivery" started their delivery wagons at work Thursday morning. One of the teams of young mules became unmanageable and ran away but did no special damage from the fact that an electric light post was in the way.

—We are the only house in Central Missouri that can fit you in all this season's latest style suits, and save you from $3 to $8. F. & A. Victor.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trigg and son Ewing, got home Sunday last from California and other western points at which they have spent the past several months. Their friends will be glad to know all of them return improved in health.

—The Otterville Mail says "without an expensive proceeding in the courts there is no street, lot, block or line in Otterville that can be established legally." And further asks, "in what section, township and range is the town of Otterville? Can you answer this question from the official records of the county?"

—Rooms For Rent—Furnished or Unfurnished; modern conveniences; Smiley building, 711 Sixth Street. mar 20th

—One of the largest audiences the opera house has been favored with for a long time was on Monday night when four reels of high class motion pictures were put on the screen, two reels of which made the feature picture, "The Gambler's Web." Mr. Stephens is giving his patrons a good line of pictures at each entertainment.

—Peter Patterson McNeil, aged eighty years, and a pioneer citizen of Cooper county residing two miles north of Otterville died Wednesday, April 15, 1914, after an illness of three years with cancer. The widow and eight children survive. The remains were buried at the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Otterville Friday of last week. ✓

McNeil