

MRS. W. M. GILBREATH DIES
AT AGE OF EIGHTY-TWO.

Life-long Resident of This County.
Survived by Daughter; Husband Died in 1915; A Brother, Aged 91 Years, Survives.

MARRIED 64 YEARS AGO.

Martha Elizabeth Chambers was born in Cooper county, Mo., on October 16, 1835; united with old Salem Presbyterian church in girlhood, and was married to Mr. William M. Gilbreath April 25, 1854, who died on September 2, 1915. Two children were born to this union, one dying in infancy, the other, Mrs. J. S. Henry, of this city surviving the mother. Mrs. Gilbreath quietly passed away at the family home on Sixth street on March 25, 1918, aged 82 years, 5 months and 9 days. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at Boonville Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and burial at Walnut Grove cemetery. Services were conducted by Dr. B. P. Fullerton, secretary Home Missions of the Southwest of the Presbyterian church, who performed the ceremony which united Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Henry in marriage.

Mrs. Gilbreath spent her entire life in Cooper county. It was a life filled with fruitful deeds of christian helpfulness. She was a charter member of Bethel church and had been a member of the Boonville Presbyterian church for many years. A brother, Mr. William Chambers who is now 91 years of age, survives. There are also a number of cousins, nieces and nephews surviving.

Boonville Weekly Advertiser

29 Mar 1918

1/2