YOUNG MAN DIES.

Hiram Earl Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Case, of Otterville, died one day last week at Smithton, Pettis county, where he was principal of the high school. Earl was born in Clarks Fork township in November, 1897, and had not reached his majority at the time of his death. He was a young man of exceptional merit. He was held in the highest esteem by those who were acquainted with him. His father, H. D. Case, is a well to do farmer near Otterville and is well known throughout the county. After graduating at the Otterville high school, Earl attended the State Normal at Warrensburg where he made an enviable record as a student and as a young man of high character. He was a nephew of the late Vic Colin at Boonville.
