

CENTRAL MISSOURI REPUBLICAN

24 Oct 1918

8/2

PERSONAL AND PERTINENT

Marion Hurt, Al Hurt, Chas. Eyster, and "Fatty" Jegglin, all of St. Louis, arrived in Boonville today, driving a Reo car, on their way to George Arnold's farm, near Otterville, on a hunting trip. Marion and Al Hurt are old Boonville boys, and both are prospering in St. Louis. Al has a barber shop in the Frisco building, and Marion has a plumbing shop. "Fatty" Jegglin is railroading and buying Liberty bonds.