

James A. Manker.

Ralph Manker, of the Sedalia Printing Co., received a message from W. S. Frazier, secretary of Iroquois lodge No. 7, Pioneers, of Valdez, Alaska, that his brother, James A. Manker, died at Cordova, Alaska, Dec. 26. The funeral was held under the direction of the above lodge.

James A. Manker was born at Mooreville, Ind., Sept. 16, 1854, and came to Missouri in 1869 with his father and mother, the late Colonel W. J. Manker, and family, settling in Sedalia March 1, 1871.

In 1884 the deceased went to the state of Washington, and spent several years railroading, and in 1891, getting the gold fever, went to Alaska, where he had since resided.

James was never married, and leaves to mourn his death one sister, Mrs. Samuel F. Brown, and one brother, Ralph, and several nieces and nephews.

Bertha Louise Dising.

The death of the only surviving sister of the late Albert A. Callies, of Sedalia, sister-in-law of Mrs. Catherine Callies, of 214 East Fifth street, this city, was written of as follows in Sunday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat:

Entered into rest on Thursday, Dec. 26, 1918, at 11 p. m., Bertha Louise Dising (nee Callies), beloved mother of Henry E. and William Dising, Mrs. Fred Heinz (nee Dising), and our dear mother-in-law, grandmother, sister-in-law and aunt, at the age of 68 years. Funeral

James Peet Brown.

Charles Peet Brown, jr., received a telegram Sunday that his brother, James Peet Brown, who lived in Chicago, had died there very suddenly. He had retired from business ten years ago and never was married.

It was the last request of Mr. Brown that he should, after death be laid to rest by the side of his mother in the family lot in Bellefontaine cemetery, St. Louis. Another brother, Thomas Brown, will convey the body to St. Louis and the funeral will be conducted from the Wagner chapel.

Charles Peet Brown left at noon today for St. Louis to attend the funeral, and will go to Chicago to wind up the affairs of his deceased brother.

Sterling Jackson.

Sterling Jackson, aged 33 years, died at his home near Longwood on Saturday of influenza. He is survived by his wife, who is very ill with influenza, and two children.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Crockett Sunday at Miller chapel.

Mrs. Mary S. Wimer.

Mrs. Mary S. Wimer, aged 71 years, of Lamonte, mother of Mrs. T. S. Norris, a former resident of Sedalia, now living near Lamonte, died at the General hospital Monday morning.

The remains were taken to Lamonte for burial.

Mrs. William H. Curnutt.

Mrs. Margaret Forbes Curnutt, wife of William H. Curnutt, a retired farmer, died Sunday morning at 4 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Wyatt, at St. Joseph, Mo., where she had been for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Curnutt was born and reared in Pettis county, and after her marriage to Mr. Curnutt lived for many years on a farm near Beaman. They later resided at 1316 South Montgomery avenue, this city. She was a member of Olive Branch church near Beaman and a good christian woman.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Curnutt is survived by the following children: Wesley Curnutt, in Montana; Robert Curnutt, with the U. S. N. in Japan; Mrs. Millie Steidel, St. Joseph; Mrs. Anna Wyatt, St. Joseph; Beaura Curnutt, Kansas City; Charles Curnutt, Sedalia; Mrs. Nannie O'Neill, Sedalia, and Mrs. Fay Marstelis, Kansas City, and two brothers, William Forbes, Smithton, and Z. T. Forbes, northeast of Beaman.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Charles Curnutt, 1324 South Barrett avenue, the Rev. Zeb Thomas officiating. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.
