COMMITTED SUICIDE WITH SMALL SHOTGUN

James Moore of Pleasant Hill
Church Neighborhood
Kills Self

HAD BEEN DESPONDENT
Tragedy Took Place at His Home in County Wednesday
Morning

James Moore, an aged and respected citizen of the Pilot Grove neighborhood, or to be exact, of Pleasant Hill church neighborhood, committed suicide at his home, last Tuesday morning, with a single barrel shot gun, blowing the top of his head off. He had been in ill health for some time and has frequently deplored the fact that he was growing useless in this world, indicating that he would some day kill himself. Mr. Moore leaves a wife, a son, and a married daughter. We are unable to obtain full details and particulars, but the facts are as above stated. The funeral was held at Pleasant Hill church yesterday at one o'clock, p. m. and interment was made at Pleasant Hill cemetery.
