

Weekly Democrat News Marshall

21 Aug 1919

Sec. 2

1/5

ROBERT McCLELLAND RENISON.

A Prominent Farmer of Saline County Dies at Excelsior Springs.

Robert McClelland Renison, son of Jack and Katherine Renison, was born in Pettis county, Mo., September 30th, 1861, died at Excelsior Springs, Mo., August 12, 1919. He had been in poor health for some time, did not think his condition serious until he was attacked with acute diabetes.

He was married to Maggie McCutcheon, February 7th, 1885, to this union four children were born, none of whom are living.

He was again married to Anny Horton, his present wife, February 24, 1896, to this union three children were born all of whom are living as follows: Mrs. Frank Perkins, Miss Marion Master Robert, one grand-daughter, Edith Ruth Perkins, four brothers, two sisters and many relatives are left to mourn his death. He has been a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian at Millers Chapel since his early life and a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge at Ridge Prairie since 1892. His death takes from this part of our country one of the most prosperous and prominent farmers and stock raisers. He had spent his entire life on a farm in the southern part of the county near Elk Lick.

The home will be desolate with out husband, father, and brother, but the memory of his life, with its influences will be a blessing to his family and the community in which he lived, tender sympathy is extended to the bereaved family and all who sorrow on account of his death.

The funeral took place Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at Miller's Chapel and was conducted by Rev. Crockett, pastor of the Longwood Presbyterian Church. Interment here at cemetery. Undertaker, T. M. Walker of Marshall in charge. (Contributed)