

Boonville Weekly Advertiser
12 Mar 1920

1/4

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

D. T. Bruce, better known as "Tucker," was found dead in his bed Tuesday evening at his home in Wooldridge by his wife. He was about 65 years of age and leaves wife and nine children. He was an old resident of the Wooldridge community and was well known.

F. G. Lohse attended the funeral Sunday of Mrs. Leeloooney in Sedalia

Mrs. Paul Playder of Armstrong, Mo., is here visiting her brother, R. B. Twyman and family, and her aunt, Mrs. C. G. Miller and family.

A mich cow sold at $201 at the Davin Bros. sale held Tuesday, about the highest price recorded at the many sales during the winter in this community.

According to a license tag received Monday by Esser Bros. for F. D. Weis, the Secretary of State, John L. Sullivan, has issued this year 205,549 auto license.

Mrs. George W. Smith, aged 92 years, died at her home in Otterville Tuesday. Her husband died some years since. The remains were buried Thursday.

In recognition of the faithful work done at the fire of the K. P. building on the 5th inst., the Farmers Trust Co., made a present of $25 to the city fire department.

Mrs. Otto Stock, aged about 40 years, died at the family home east of Gooch Mill, Monday. She is survived by husband and six children who are all young.