JOHN CHRISMAN DIES.

After a Few Days Illness Succumbs to a Complication of Diseases.

John Chrisman, one of Boonville's old and esteemed citizens answered the call Thursday afternoon, about 2 o'clock after an illness of only a few days from a complication of afflictions.

Mr. Chrisman came with his parents to America in 1857, from Bavaria, Germany, where he was born on August 31, 1850.

The family settled in St. Louis where John grew to manhood and learned the trade of cigar maker. In 1868 he came to Boonville and for the past 27 years has worked as cigar-maker in the factory of George Garthoffner. Mr. Chrisman was a good citizen and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a quiet, lawabiding man who attended strictly to his own affairs, and was faithful to his business employer.

He is survived by his widow, who before marriage, was Miss Matilda Hofer, of this city, also two children—Henry Chrisman, manager of the shoe department at Victor's store, and Miss Susie Chrisman, saleslady at Bassett-Groegery Co.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family home on Seventh street to Walnut Grove cemetery.
