

MANY COOPER COUNTY FARMS NOT RECORDED

More Than 200 Grants From Washington, D. C. Have Not Been Entered in Boonville.

THEY MUST BE RECORDED NOW

Daily Republican Publishes Names of Those Who Patented Land and Date Grant Was Given by Government

More than 200 farms in Cooper County that have been entered on the patent records of the government and some in Washington, D. C. have never been recorded in Cooper County, and the head of the government land office was written from the national capital to Circuit Clerk F. M. Smith telling him that these land grants must be recorded in the circuit clerk's office in Boonville. The list of persons who patented land and never had it recorded as follows:
