

OTTERVILLE ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Cramer have purchased a new piano for their son Owen.

The Smithton High School gave their play in their school auditorium Friday, May 6. It was entitled "Kentucky Bell." It was well rendered and enjoyed by all. Mrs. Burnett and Miss Case, both of this place, are employed as teachers in the Smithton school. Among those from here who attended the play were: Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Norris and daughter, Miss Gladys; Wil. L. Reed, Miss Jewell Stephens, Eugene Case, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Berkey.

Miss Laura Nell Rennison of Syracuse spent the weekend as the guest of her uncle, H. D. Case, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walls were guests of the latter's sister in Sedalla over Sunday, Mr. Walls returning Sunday noon and Mrs. Walls and daughter Mabel remaining until Monday on account of the heavy rain Sunday.

P. H. Hoodap returned to Sedalla Monday evening after an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. E. A. W. Schupp.

Mrs. Clara Zimmerscheld and her brother, Herman Bretall, motored to Florence Saturday, remaining over Sunday and attending the funeral of Mr. Borne at that place. Mr. Borne passed away Friday night after a lingering illness of some months.

Mrs. Lemke of this place was on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. Stubblefield of Holden returned to her home after visiting the past two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith.

J. L. Spillers is having some carpenter work done on the interior of his house.

Mr. and Mrs. David Groves, Jr., arrived Sunday evening and will spend a few days with the latter's mother, Mrs. Arthur Burnett, before leaving for Kansas City, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Berkey were passengers to Jefferson City and Eton Sunday, visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Berkey.

Miss Louise Page, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Page, returned home last week. Louise has been staying with her grandmother and attending school in Florence.

Everybody is invited to attend the commencement exercises Friday, May 20. The high school play, "And Home Comes Ned," will be given Friday night, May 13. Everybody is requested to attend.

A. L. Gochenour is now running the meat shop, and sometime after June 1 will open a grocery store in the Bank building, formerly occupied by the Bank of Otterville.