FUNERAL SERVICE

In Memory of the Late Herman L. Seat, Taken Place From Residence.

The services over the remains of H. L. Seat was held at the family home on West Washington this afternoon at 2:30 and was conducted by Rev. Elmer A. Love. He took for a basis of his talk third Timothy, fourth chapter, seventh and eighth verses, "I have fought the good fight, have finished the course," etc.

The hymns sung by Mrs. W. M. Westbrook, Miss Medora Leonard and Murray Fellers were "When the Roll is Called Up There," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

After the services the remains were taken to Ridge Park for interment.

The following friends served as pall bearers: Messers J. E. McAnis, Hiram Henton, Harry Gilpin, J. V. Burroughs, Mr. Hulén and Bruce Clawson.

A great many beautiful flowers were laid on the new mound at Ridge Park, which were silent messengers of love, sympathy and friendship.

A Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors, International Shoe Factory and Woodman Circle for their kindness and beautiful floral offerings during the illness and death of our dear husband and father.
