

PILOT GROVE

(By Mrs. Darnes)

James W. Roe has returned to his home in Versailles, after a few days visit to his brother, Kelly Roe and other relatives.

Miss Isabel Quinlan is assisting our postmistress Mrs. Caleb Jones, in the office.

John Boles whose father, B. F. Boles, was at one time in the furniture business here, came over from near Postal Saturday. He was accompanied by Robert Taylor who came to consult a physician.

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. George came down from Sedalia Saturday and visited Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hickman combining pleasure and business.

Mrs. Cecil McClaffin and little daughter, Madge, were shopping in Boonville Monday.

Rev. Allor was called to Pleasant Green Friday to preach the funeral of Toun Tavenner, an old and respected vision of that community.

Quite a number of persons from here were called as witnesses at the trial of the Harris estate in Boonville Wednesday.

Pete Bock shipped a car load of hogs to the St. Louis market for the Pilot Grove livestock association, Monday.

Frank Schuster shipped on car load consisting of hogs, sheep and calves to the St. Louis market.

Mrs. Julia Moore Dead

Mr. Julia Moore who lived about six miles northeast of town, died Sunday morning of pneumonia and was buried Tuesday at the Pleasant Hill cemetery. She had living with her two children, to mourn her passing. The friends and neighbors sympathize with them in their great loss.

The Pilot Grove Glee Club of about 30 members which was organized by Mrs. Charley Tutt of Euncoton some several months ago, furnished the music for the services at the Methodist church Sunday night. We are glad Mrs. Tutt has shown so much interest in our young people and hope the class will increase in numbers.

Mrs. Regis Harriman entertained the Drénnan Bible class of the Presbyterian Sunday school Thursday of which Mrs. W. A. Scott is the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Long have returned from a few days' visit to relatives in Kansas City.

Miss Lorene Meyer and Mr. Leonard Kemp were married Tuesday morning at the Catholic church by Rev. Fr. Hildebrandt. There was a dance given Tuesday night at Conway's hall for the bride and groom and their many friends. They were attended by Miss Sarah Kemp and Mr. John Meyer.

Miss Jenny from Boonville who is here studying telegraphy under the instruction of Mr. Buchanan, is rooming at Mrs. Joe Thompson's.

Some very thoughtless as well as destructive person or persons have been going around town after the lights are out and cutting down the trees on the parkways and in the yards. Some of these trees have been out only a few years and were expected to take the place of the old ones as they died.

Pilot Grove is feeling the need of waterworks now as nearly all
