with Otterville relatives before going on to Jefferson City, where she will assist in the grading of examination papers in the office of the State Superintendents of Schools, she having been one of eleven selected from the students at the Central Missouri State Teachers College for such a position. After completing this work, she will return to Warrensburg for the remainder of the term at which time she will receive the degree of B.S.

Mrs. Joseph Spencer and Mrs. Nell Neale, who accompanied the body of their mother, Mrs. Iva Wilkerson here for burial Wednesday, returned to their home in Reton, New Mexico Friday.

Other relatives and friends from out of town who attended the funeral of Mrs. Wilkerson were: Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Adron, Sedalla, Mrs. P. Fink, Mrs. Wm. Rudy and Miss Hatlie Godbey, Warrensburg; Mrs. Ella Gilbert, Ray and Forrest, Calvert and Lawrence Ream of Green Ridge; Mrs. Annie Anderson, Smithton and Mrs. C. W. Rotheob, Sedalla.

Mrs. T. O. Spillers attended the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ed Favorite at Warrensburg, Tuesday morning. Mrs. Favorite, before her marriage was Miss Carrie Mays of New Lebanon. She was born in 1863. In 1893 she was married to Edward Favorite. Two children blessed this union. The daughter, Mabel died about seven years ago, when just budding into womanhood, and the son, Forrest, died last April. Mr. Favorite has the deepest sympathy of a host of friends here at his former home, in his great bereavement. Mrs. J. T. Woods of Pilot Grove is the only surviving sister of the deceased.

Favorite, whose maiden name was Carrie Mays, spent her girlhood days in Cooper county and was loved by all for her sweet disposition and amiable ways. She leaves her husband and one sister, Mrs. J. T. Woods, of Pilot Grove. Two children, Nellie and Forrest, who had attained three majority, preceded her to the grave.

Mrs. Walker Cordry, of near Mt. Zion, narrowly escaped from what might have been a very serious accident last Friday. She was blacking a stove when the polishing cloth, which was saturated with a polish in which gasoline was an ingredient, became ignited, causing her apron to catch afire. In extinguishing the flames Mrs. Cordry severely burned her right hand. Dr. Parrish has been dressing it regularly, and she is getting along as well as could be expected.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks and gratitude to the friends and good neighbors for the cheerful service rendered during the illness and burial of our dear mother, Mrs. Susan W. Pulley.—The Children.
