

Boonville Weekly Advertiser
16 May 1924
10/1

Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Spillers, of Sedalla, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Spillers, Sunday.

J. E. Jewell and G. L. Crippen of the State Highway Dept., were in the vicinity of Otterville, several days last week inspecting gravel to be used in the construction of the new capital highway. A liberal sample of gravel was shipped to Jefferson City to the highway department.

Mother's Day was appropriately observed at the Methodist Sunday School Sunday morning. The Junior class, taught by Mrs. H. Roger Starke, conducted the opening of the school. Miss Jennie Lee Starke was at the piano and also rendered a special selection. William Ross led the scripture reading; Gwendolyn Golladay sang "You're The Best Little Mother That God Ever Made;" Supt. J. H. Gunn gave a touching tribute to mothers.

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet given to the Senior class and faculty was given at Gunn's hall Thursday evening, which was elaborate with Japanese decorations. The odor of wistaria incense permeated the building. A splendid five course dinner was served during which "toasts" and music were enjoyed. The program in detail follows: Music, Pete Zumsteg; Welcome, Dr. B. Mayfield; Music, Alma and Amy Case; To the Seniors, Pete Zumsteg; To the Juniors, Helen Busch; Music, May Gentry; To the Faculty, Edna Neale; To the students, Supt. J. C. Miller; Music, Enid Wherley.

Class Day was observed by the Senior class at the high school Friday morning. An interesting part of the pleasing program was the presentation to the school of the Class Banner and the net proceeds derived from the class play, amounting to $75, as a nucleus for a fund to purchase a new piano for the school which was done by Miss Helen Busch, president of the class. Supt. J. C. Miller in a few well chosen remarks, accepting the gift.

The Otterville B. Y. P. U. entertained the Senior class Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. May Gorman. Games and other amusements made up a pleasant evening's entertainment, during which refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Rev. F. D. Fuzor, Professor of Bible, at William Jewell College, delivered a splendid baccalaureate address to the Senior class at the Presbyterian church Sunday night from the text, "Except a Grain of Wheat Fall in the Ground and Die, it Abideth Alone."

Otterville friends were shocked Saturday to learn of the death of a former Otterville resident, Mrs. George Homan, which occurred at the family home in Sedalla Saturday following a short illness. Mrs. Homan was before her marriage, Miss Annie Mason, daughter of former well known residents of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Mason. She was born near Otterville 28 years ago and resided in this community throughout her life until about eighteen months ago when the