OTTERVILLE

Chas. Lader, Boonville, was calling on Ottervillians Saturday.

Miss Eva Henry, of Tipton, is the guest of Mrs. F. L. Cole this week.

Homan Hupp, of Raton, N. M., arrived in Otterville Monday for a visit with relatives.

Misses Edith Berry and Frances Eubank went to Warrensburg Thursday for a several days' visit.

Miss Pauline Childers, of St. Louis, and Miss Maude Small, of Sedalia, are the guests of Mrs. H. H. Everett.

Mrs. Emil Moore, of Warsaw, underwent an operation this week for the removal of her tonsils at the Osborn hospital.

Misses Ruth and Glennola Gorm are home after a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hogan, Boonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parsons are the proud parents of a daughter, their first born, who arrived on the morning of May 26, when they have named Mary Elizabeth.

L. A. Eubank arrived Sunday from Cowgill, where he has been a Supt. of Schools for the past two years, and will spend the summer at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eubank.

For the past several months the Mo. Pacific night office at the station here, has been closed. It has just been re-opened, and Roy Reich, who formerly was there, is now in charge of the office.

Miss Ella Mae Henderson, was elected teacher in the ward school to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Durward Goode, completing the term of teachers for the Otterville consolidated district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gann and their guests, Mrs. H. P. Ley, of Warsaw, went to Cape Girardeau Sunday where they will stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen B. Hunter until the first of the week.

Mrs. Annie Ross, one of Otterville's respected residents, fell backwards from a porch in the rear of her home Friday morning, severely injuring one of her limbs, tearing the ligaments under her knee and sustaining bruises and other slight injuries.

Thieves entered the garage of E. B. Reed Saturday, by breaking in a window and carried off tires, inner tubes and tools valued at $5.

An effect of the recent flood of the late Miss Anna Belle was held at the late residence one mile south of town, Saturday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance. Bidding was spirited on some of the furniture, all of which was brought from Ohio in 1865 and a few pieces brought from Ireland in 1809.

Miss Gladys Garland has been elected as principal of the English and History in the Otterville high school this coming term. Miss Garland is an Otterville girl educated in the Otterville schools, the Teachers College at Warrensburg, taught several very successful terms, and is attending the Missouri University, where she will receive her degree of B. S. at the close of the present term.

Mrs. W. E. Parsons and Jesse Parsons attended the wedding of Emmett Parsons, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Parsons, of Otterville, and Miss Flossie Plater, which was solemnized at the bride's home in Malta Bend, Saturday, May 14th. Following a trip to Kansas City, the happy couple will go to housekeeping in Marshall, where the groom is an insurance agent.

Mrs. Emil Moore, of Warsaw, underwent an operation this week for the removal of her tonsils at the Osborn hospital.