Boonville Weekly Advertiser
30 Jan 1925
10/5

SPEED
Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Chamberlin and little son, George Hall, spent last Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. Vera Williams of Lebanon, Missouri.
Uncle Lyra, of Boonville, spent last Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Grover Jeffries.

Tolia Sly motored to California Friday and Monday.

O. C. Berry has moved his home here to a residence on South Main St., Boonville.

Ray Williams has had a new radio installed in his home here.

Mrs. Wayne Berry is suffering with tonsillitis this week.

The Washington Farm Club presented the play, "The Path Across the Hill" at the Woodman Hall here last Friday night. A good crowd was present and the play was greatly enjoyed by all.

Misses Helen and Geneva Sly, who attend school at Central College, Fayette, were called home last Friday by the illness and death of their sister, Mrs. Harold Reader, of St. Louis.

Mrs. John Oswald, of Boonville, came Sunday to be with her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Berry, who is quite sick.

The Farm Club will hold a meeting Monday night in the Gerhardt-Hall here. There will be a program and debate. Everyone invited.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Miller, of Portland, Colorado, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Holloway and Hazel Whitaker, of Clarkburg, spent Wednesday night with Louis Miller and family.

George Schlotzauer and Jack Painter left here Saturday evening for St. Louis, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Harold Reader, on Sunday, returning home Monday morning.

Mrs. D. P. Stegner, Misses Helen and Geneva Sly, and Tolia Sly went to St. Louis Saturday to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Harold Reader, on Sunday. They were accompanied by their uncle, Stanley Schlotzauer, of Pilot Grove.

Rev. Paul Niedermeier, of Hillsville, has kindly consented to again preach each and every Saturday night at the Unio church here throughout the coming year. We feel that we are indeed fortunate in securing such an able pastor as Rev. Niedermeier.

Ed Warrack, of Dunpton, has purchased walnut logs from a number of farmers in this community.

George Hill has purchased a new radio from Leonard Childs. It will be installed in the near future.

OTTERTVILLE
Mr. and Mrs. Ed McLaughlin of Clifton City entertained a party of friends Wednesday and Thursday with a change of location.

The table was beautifully decorated with paper flowers. A four-course dinner was served, the guests being: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Collliday, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Plaistre, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Quin, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sargent, Mrs. C. D. Odom, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller and Miss Landmark.

Mrs. McLaughlin was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Miller. High score was won by Mr. J. E. Collliday, the prize being a deck of cards.

Clarence Tallaforn, of Kansas City, son of Mrs. Dora Tallaforn, of Ottertville, was buried in the L. O. O. F. cemetery Friday. He leaves his wife, mother and four brothers.

The Rebecca Lodge held its installation of officers for the coming year Thursday night as follows: Mrs. Dease Smith, N. G.; Mrs. Kate Burt, Sec.; Mrs. Peluch Scholl, Treas.; and Mrs. Dora Thomas, Recorder. The installing officer was Mrs. Walker, of Sedalia. After the installation refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. Lou Spillers was visiting in California this week with her daughter, Aimee Spillers.

Mrs. Baille Smith came home Saturday after a long visit with her sisters, Mrs. J. R. Pills, of Joplin, and Mrs. H. H. Hills of Wichita, Kansas. She also visited her daughter, Miss M. E. Cary, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. Lizzie Burtford left Sunday for Kansas City, where she will nurse a case of an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Everett have moved to a new home, R. H. Childers, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Lincoln Schibb and children spent the week end with Mrs. Schibb's sister, Mrs. W. G. Manus and brother, Ira Decker.

The Farmers Shipment Association shipped two car loads of stock to St. Louis Monday, they also shipped one load of wheat to Terrell.

Miss Showmaker, nurse at the Osbourn Hospital, left Friday for her home in Kansas City.

Mr. Bille Bryan spent the week end with Miss Louise Palmer in Holdenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cooper, of Sedalia, spent Sunday with Mrs. Tom Phillips.

Miss Helen Bush and Glenda Gorman, students at Warrensburg, spent the week end with their respective parents in Ottertville.

Burkett Smith of Pana, came home for an extended visit with his mother, Mrs. Baille Smith. Mr. Smith had been visiting in California.

George Potter made a business trip to Boonville Tuesday.