Boonville Weekly Advertiser
13 Feb 1925
9/4

LUPUS.

Herbert Knopp, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knopp of near Renfro, is now a regular Missouri Pacific brakeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreamer of Overton came Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Kreamer’s mother.

Orrile Hutchison of Sandy Hook is working in Boonville as a third trick operator at Missouri Pacific Station.

Frank Renfro and George Knopp of near Woolridge loaded a car of walnut logs here late Wednesday.

Several from here attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Minneal given by the Girk’s Band at Jamestown Saturday evening.

H. B. Vardaman, carrier on R. F. D. 2 at Jamestown, called on friends here.

There was a hard rainstorm here Sunday about noon causing several slides along the bluffs on the railroad.

Alva Britzindine fell while at school Wednesday and sustained a fractured arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Washers of Colorado Springs arrived last week for a visit with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grossenbacher of Kirkville came this week.

Mrs. Grossenbacher was formerly Miss Hennigan of this place. They expect to locate here.

Charles Britzindine and brother-in-law, Harry Christy, were over 100 loads of wood sawed last week.

Rev. O. M. Baker of California, who was recently called as pastor of the local Baptist Church, came Saturday to fill his first regular appointment. He was accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Baker.

Mrs. Van B. Wilson was informed by telegram Monday of the death of her uncle, H. E. Stoffles, formerly of Russellville, who died in Colorado.

Margaret Don Carlos, who has been with her aunt, Mrs. Joe Imhoff of near Cedron, since the death of her mother last fall, came Sunday to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson. Her brother, Homer, will also stay at the Thompson’s home while other brother, Eugene, expects to go to Henry county soon.

Central Stock accompanied a shipment of stock to St. Louis Monday.

Mrs. Laura E. Lane of Oakfield School accompanied by her brother, Hugo, who teaches Fairview School, spent the week-end with home folks and the Miller’s.

The condition of Mrs. T. B. Hendron and Mrs. Louis Miller is unimproved.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Cheatham and daughter, Ida Faith, of Duncanton came Tuesday for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cheatham.

PENINSULA.

Woodrow Jones and family have returned to their farm near here. They have been living in Pilot Grove the last year. During this time Schrader Brothers operated the farm. Mr. Jones will farm the place himself this year.

W. F. Halm, teacher of Willow Grove, north of Blackwater, is ill at his home here. There was no school Monday.

The Peninsulaw Women’s Missionary Union met last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Biggs.

Rev. J. B. Bomar, of Tipton, filled his regular appointments here Saturday and Sunday.

A new sullivair air compressor was brought from Blackwater station to the road works here last Friday. It weighs 2200 pounds. It is the property of C. O. Klinnor, who will dynamite the hill to remove a layer of broken rock. Just now, there are 75 places in the road where highway No. 2 follows the old road and it has been necessary to travel that; it is almost impassable. Doubt of the hard surface road will be appreciated when completed.

A. H. Alley and family and Miss Minerva McCrane spent Sunday in the T. P. Taylor home.

Martha Britzindine is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Platt and daughter spent Sunday with Mrs. Platt’s father, Mr. J. H. Case.

Miss Edna Smith, who has employed in Marshfield, spent Sunday night with her parents. She was accompanied by several friends from Marshfield.

J. V. Mercereau, who has been suffering with a severe carbuncle since January 1, is improved quite a bit.

Mr. and Mrs. Standard Creamer spent Sunday with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Waincott. Mr. Bagby and C. C. Allen and family were Sunday dinner guests in the Waincott home.

Joe Cash spent Sunday with John Rousar.

Virgil Taylor and family visited Sunday with Mrs. Taylor’s grandmother, Mrs. Marshall, at Nelson.

CLIFTON CITY

(By Mrs. L. A. Retherford)

Mrs. W. H. Conner, of near Beaman, who fell and broke her hip about two weeks ago, died February 2 and was buried in Oliff Branch Cemetery Sunday.

Van Ellis has bought the E. B. Brown property in Clifton City, now occupied by Mr. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis of Lamia, and Miss Fern Grow of Clifton City, were married February 7.

Mr. and Mrs. George Deuschle of Clear Creek visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McMillian of Lamia, Sunday.

Jesse Tavenner and son, Morris, of